“ Don was always the consummate professional whenever I was working a real estate contract with the family. He always made me feel welcome and was a good balance for Wilma. These are some of my favorite people as they demonstrated the love of Christ every time I came in contact with them. Even when I lost a $10,000 earnest money check, they never made me feel like a dummy; of course, I had enough of those feelings myself. God rest Don's soul. I know he is smiling up there.
