“ I was saddened when Doretta's daughter let me know that she had passed away, yet in a sense, I felt relief for my dear friend. She knew she didn't have long, and she told me that she was saved and she looked forward to seeing her Daddy. I will never forget the hugs and laughs we shared together during the time she was at Westwood. One evening, when a karaoke team was there we danced together to Elvis, Doretta in her wheelchair and me acting the total fool! I wouldn't have missed it though, just to see the huge smile on her face. Like her loved ones, I will miss her sweet smile and kindness, but I have peace knowing she is in the presence of Jesus now! God Bless All of You, especially my newly found friend, Sherry. Love, Cherrie
