July 8, 1929 - October 5, 2018

Doris Louise King, 89, of Springdale AR, passed away October 5, 2018. She was born July 8, 1929 in Peabody, KS to the late Harry and Lucille Shockley.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 50 years, John Sam King, son John, and daughter Marsha.

A longtime resident of El Dorado she enjoyed raising her family before starting her career as a nurse assistant for Dr. Girard and later as secretary and accountant for K.T. Wiedemann Trust. She was involved in many social and civic groups before retirement.

In later years Doris relocated to Springdale, AR to be near her family. She was a resident of Gardens of Arkanshire retirement community where she immediately established her place as friend, card player, and involved herself in directing the rearranging the decor in the community.

Doris is survived by her son Brad and his wife Sheryl of Springdale. Her sister Eleanor Abplanalp of Newton. And, the greatest joys of her life, her 6 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren.

“ I met Doris when she moved to Arkanshire. She joined the weekly bridge group where I was the frequent substitute. She and my friend, Vicky Sloan, became friends. Since all three of us liked movies, we had occasional movie dates. Doris was a delightful lady who had great stories, love for her family, and a strong faith in God. She had a generous heart and a quick smile. I will always think of her with great fondness. Susie Stewart
