“ I send my sincere condolences to all of you. Dorothy was in my prayer group in the 1980s-90s and she was a wonderful lady. She is missed on earth but we hope to rejoin her in heaven.

“ *Dorothy was a lifelong friend of my mothers who just passed away on 9-17. They grew up together in Cave Springs. I have heard a lot of stories of you mom from her. Dorothy was my PE teacher. I did not believe mom when she said they were friends. You mom had a beautiful smile. She was a tough teacher she always wanted you to be fit. Mom said she was very athletic as a child and entered many gymnastic competitions. She for a while went to the monthly breakfasts of the Cave Springs ladies who grew up in Cave Springs and so many are now gone. Mom was Mary Magdalene Hubbard Callison. I am truly sorry for the loss of your wonderful lovely mom. Our condolences.
Keep the memories.
Sincerely,*

“ *I saw in the paper that Dorothy passed away. I am so sorry. It had been a long time since I had talked with her but I knew that she was in Pa. Sometimes it does seem hard to accept what God has for us.
