“ I didn't really get to know my grandma until I was an adult. We could talk for hours on the phone either about ailments or the latest on Nancy Grace. It didn't matter she was a joy to talk to. She loved each and everyone of her kids and talked about them all the time. My grandma Dorothy was a dear friend to me and I will miss her so much. I know she is holding her siblings and her son that she had missed so much and is at peace, mind, body & spirit. I love you Grandma!
