

Earl Baker

July 25, 2012

Earl Raymond Baker, 75, of Springdale, died Wednesday, July 25, 2012 at Circle of Life Hospice in Springdale. He was born December 24, 1936 in Springdale.

His younger days in Springdale were spent avoiding trouble, but more often than not, finding it with his favorite cousins. Earl was known for his tall tales, quick wit and unique sense of humor.

Earl was a retired salesman and a Pastor. He loved gardening and having his kids help with the garden- whether they wanted to or not. He was an avid reader of all things spiritual and philosophical. He was a very generous and compassionate man. Earl spent his life sharing his love for the Lord with everyone he encountered. Most special to him was his family. He was so very proud of each child and grandchild and prayed for them daily.

He was preceded in death by his parents Walter and Peggy Haggard.

Earl is survived by his wife JoAnn Deen Baker of the home to whom he was married July 10, 1958; two sons, Tim Baker and wife Deanah of Springdale and Michael Baker and wife Catherine of Fayetteville; two daughters, Joy Baker of Tulsa and Melanie Baker Herman and husband Jeff of Collierville, TN; one sister, Nedra Frain and nephew Jeff Thomas; eight grandchildren,

Justin, Rachel and Evan Baker, Grant and Gracyn Herman and John Riley,
Thomas and Elizabeth Baker.

Funeral services will be Monday, July 30, 2012 at 1pm at Sisco Funeral
Chapel of Springdale with Pastor John Glasser officiating.

Visitation will be Sunday, from 3 to 5pm at the funeral home.

Memorials may be made to Circle of Life Hospice, 901 Jones Road,
Springdale, Arkansas 72762.

“ Joann & Family:

I am deeply sad to hear of Earl Raymonds passing. I appreciate all he has done for our family. I did not know he was ill. It was a shock due to his preaching Aunt Monteze's funeral. May God Bless you and your family at this time. I am so sorry that I could not attend the funeral. Billie Jo & Family
