“ My husband Michael and I were next door neighbors of Olive on Spring St. We had just moved here from Chicago, IL. Miss Olive was so kind and welcoming to us. Many times we shared conversation through our back yards. It was so comforting for me to be in her safe presence. When she mowed her lawn on Saturdays, I enjoyed hearing her lawn mower just putting along. So relaxing. She was a dear woman, and we will miss her, but always remember her.

“ Miss Olive has such a special place in my heart. As a little girl I always knew where I could find a piece of gum or a mint before church. As an adult, I had the task of trying to fill her shoes when she retired from working at the church. Her spirit and precious heart is such a legacy at First Baptist church (now Cross Church). I consider it a privelege that she was part of my life. Love you Miss Olive....glad you are getting to worship Jesus in person now.
