

Edward Fields

January 10, 2009

Edward (Gene) Fields, 87, of Lowell died Jan. 10, 2009, at the Circle of Life Hospice Center. He was born Jan. 22, 1921, in Lowell to Melvin and Birdie Fields. He married his childhood sweetheart, Imogene Nail, on Aug. 15, 1941. They had three children, Eddie, Johnnie, and Kandie. He was preceded by his wife, Imogene; son, Johnnie; and daughter, Kandie. He was a veteran who fought in World War II. He was an avid horse trainer, farmer and friend.

Survivors include one brother, Orville Fields of Valley Springs, Calif., one son, Eddie Fields of Springdale; three grandchildren, Eric Fields of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Kevin Fields of Little Rock, and Kyle Fields of Bentonville, one great-granddaughter, and numerous nieces and nephews.

A viewing will be held from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday at Sisco Chapel of Springdale with a graveside service at 3 p.m. Tuesday at Wilson Cemetery with the Rev. Judy Van Hoose officiating.

Memorials may be made in his honor to The Circle of Life Hospice, 901 Jones Road, Springdale, AR 72762.

Tribute Wall

“ Edward Fields

January 21, 2023 at 02:29 PM

“ Pappy,

I have known you through few visits but many, many memories told to me by your grandson, "KK". He thought you were the greatest, strongest, best person ever. He tells me and Sydney happy times of riding the tractor and going to "Taco Tico"...of course I have heard a few from you too. The love you have given to Kevin and now Sydney, is amazing. You meant the world to him and he will be a better person because you were in his life. He is now a "pappy" himself and he chose that name for his grandsons to call him. Thank you for always asking about Lindsey and Ashley and for making us all feel loved. We miss you already and will love you always. Sherrie Fields

January 15, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you during your time off loss.

January 13, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ we love you pap.your in a better place.we love you.

January 12, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ *Our families thoughts and prayers are with you at this time of loss.
May God bless you all. J.R. Mounce family*

January 12, 2009 at 12:00 AM