“ Karen and Lisa, I so sorry to hear about the passing of your Mother. She and Aunt Bertie were two of the finest ladies I have ever known. Loved both of them dearly. Linda Lou.

“ Karen Kay, Lisa, Trent and family,

I'm sorry to hear of Arthena's passing. She was always so kind to me as a child at family reunions and visits to Arkansas. Loved listening to her talk in that sweet southern accent of hers. She and Al welcomed us to their home and Al fried up some amazing catfish that Mama and I still talk about to this day. Of course, I loved playing with the Persian kitten that she had. Arthena laughed so about our antics. The paintings that she did were beautiful. Enjoyed looking at each one and the stories behind the inspiration.

Although I didn't see her often, Granny (Aunt Neva) always had fond memories of Arthena and spoke of her often, as did my Mama.

Thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time.
