“ Era's grandmother and my grandmother, Lucinda Catherine Phillips King, were sisters. I enjoyed visiting with her when she lived here at The Gardens at Arkanshire as we swapped stories about members of our family. She will always be remembered by those whose lives she touched with love.

“ We can only hope that Era's kind will pass this way again, but I doubt it. She was bright, spunky, funny, the best company you could wish for. Some of my best memories are from working at the Shiloh Museum. I can only hope the younger generation can learn from her example and keep improving the world. She will be greatly missed down here, but widely welcomed where she next lights.

“ Aunt Era, I will really miss having you in my life. From the time when my Brothers and I were very young we would always come over to Clark and Era's to play with our cousins, Debbie, Curtis and David. It is a time I will never forget and cherish for all of my life. You were a great inspiration of how families should be. We last visited when My Grandmother Ellen Roberts passed away, and I really enjoyed that visit. May our Heavenly Father take you in his arms and welcome you Home to be with your Beloved Husband and Family. I Love You all with all my heart, as do my Brothers David and Pat. Please call if you need anything at all. 801-766-3671. Love,,,Joey

“Era and my mother, Lorraine Moore, were such good friends all their lives. Era took my mother to school on her first day. She was my Sunday school teacher and girl scout leader. I can't remember not knowing her. She was always part of my life. When Mom died, Era really missed talking to her about the Razorbacks. What fun they had. She was a great lady and will certainly be missed.

“This is a sad day for those of us who remember her from Westwood. She was also my neighbor and didn't care that we would drop by her home any time. She was the sweetest teacher and woman who always seem to see the good in all of us. She will not be forgotten in our fond memories or her. My prayers are with her many family members who will miss her.

“ Debbie and family,

I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. I have heard to speak of her a few times and I know that you dearly loved her and she was very special to you and your family. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this time as you celebrate your mother's life.

May God give you strength. Love in CHrist, Cindy
