“ Bill...I remember when I first met Ernestine and you. It was when I first started working at The Jones Center in the TV studio. Ernestine was so helpful (as you were also) and she was always available to pick up the slack when other volunteers could not be there. The two of you became good friends to me and I have missed not having your company for a long time. I do remember well when Ernestine was running a camera and I would tell her to pan to the left that I would always have to follow that up with "No your other left" A very sweet lady who will be greatly missed.
