“ I miss granny so much I remember when I was little and begging you to make chocolate gravy and getting extra early on a Saturday and going garage selling or taking walks around the yard with the dogs and how you tried to teach me how to can foods like peaches and pickels. I never thought I would have been saying good bye I thought you would live forever. I remember when you wanted something you would look at me and say des I love you for ever abd I dance at your wedding if you get me some cookies lol and all the stories you told about how papa would get on to my mom and you would jump in and said farrell but she is being a teenager I miss those times so much I would do anything to have them back but I forever hold them in my heart I love you granny fly hi with papa Charlie
