“ Janelle Jones and I would like to express our sincere sympathies to all of the family of Sis. Evelyn, she was such a pretty sweet lady and she was the one that made prayer band calls, and you could always call her with a prayer need. Very good Christian lady, and I always loved visiting and talking to her on the phone.

“ Nothing can compare to the beauty of such a warm, giving, unique soul, such precious memories, and too many laughs to remember. I can't remember a time when Evelyn's arms and heart weren't open wide. I will always see her when I see her wonderful children. We've been so blessed by such friendship. Our hearts are with you. Chris, Patti, Brian and Flo.

Our Prayers & thoughts go out to all the family. We have such wonderful memories of Evelyn she had so many funny stories to tell really enjoyed talking with her . We know Heaven is rejoicing because another one of God's children has come home. Evelyn was always right by the telephone when we needed to get someone on the Prayer Band when we went to Church at Calvary. May God Bless You All During This Difficult Time

I was honored to be welcomed in the Bohannan home many times. Evelyn was such a loving, kind person. While I know she will be missed greatly here on earth, we have the promise that we will see her smiling face again. My thoughts and prayers to all her family.
