“ Even for the short time that I knew Evlue, I found her to be one of the special ones. The time spent with her at the Lowell Senior Center was always positive, warm and interesting. She will be missed by me and those that knew her at the center.

“ Evlue was a kind, precious lady. Loved to talk to her about family, religion, politics, she was sharp. We talked about old times when our families lived in same neighborhood.

She will be missed at 1st Baptist-Lowell church.

Sorry could not make it to funeral due to a medical procedure.

“ Evlue was my Sunday School teacher when I was a young person at Caudle Church and I considered her one of the best examples of "Christ-Like" that I have ever known. I thank God that she was an influence in my life and the lives of so many others.

“ Evlue was one of my role models growing up. I considered her a prayer warrior and to everyone that knew her, she exhibited keen spiritual insight and a powerful presence. In fact, growing up, I literally thought she might be an angel. Needless to say, I stayed on good behavior when she was around. We will miss her greatly.

“ I met Mr. and Mrs. Burton in 1996 when I first joined FBC Lowell. I sat directly behind them in the sanctuary every Sunday morning. When my daughter Hanah was born in January 1998 the Burtons just loved seeing her every Sunday morning at church. Hanah is 13 now and Mrs. Burton still loved to see Hanah on Sunday mornings. We just loved her so much and we will miss her sweet smile.
