“ This is a true story from Farrell Collins. He told me this story when we were on the lake catfishing, he pulled up to the bank we had a few sandwiches and we started talking about some sounds he hear. I said what the hell are you talking about. He said he hear this sound like nothing he has never heard before. I said what was it he thinks it was a bigfoot and after listening to it for a few minutes a rock came down from bank. He said that's it he got out of there very fast. I ask if he believes in bigfoot he said he believes that was a bigfoot, so to this day i dont take any sounds for granted, Thanks to Farrell i believe.

The first time I ever met Farrell was when I was born. He was one of the first people to hold me when daddy got me home from the hospital. He was one of daddy's partying buddies and his best man when he married mom. I deeply regret not taking him up on his offer to go catfishing a few years back. You'll be deeply missed, Farrell.
