“ I met Charlene when I started going to her sister Lovena's church, she was a awesome lady of God. I enjoyed every minute I was around her and wish their had been alot more. Jimmy and Charlene was wonderful people to be around. Charlene will truly be missed but I know they rejoicing in Heaven to be together again. May God comfort the family and give you peace. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. May God Bless each and every one.

“ I met Charlene when I was 12.. The little girls who moved in next door to us went to church with Jimmy and Charlene and one night they asked if I could tag along... Even back then she treated me with kindness... I had left my granny behind in OK when we moved here and until I met Charlene I had never met another person like my granny... was blessed to know her...
