“ Hi , I remember going to church with Florine one time when Joel and I came back to Arkansas, I was impressed with her tetamony then as I am even now. We really became well aqauainted on the internet. Sharing out kids , grandkids and great grandkids.All my kids have helped me send flowers there from all of us. They are your cousins second of coures. I have shared with them what a wonderful Christian Florine was. How much I enjoyed visiting with her. I know you will miss her just natural. But you have a great legacy/ Love, Aunt Shirley

“ I will always remember when my mother passed that Florine told me she would be my "momma' now and she was. She was the most sincere servant of God I have ever known. She truly was "Great Mom" to me and everyone. I loved her and will miss her greatly--but, I know she is doing what she does best--serving Jesus.
