On August 1, 1946, Francis Lavern Johnson was born to Vernon and Velma Johnson in Macedonia, Iowa. Being the second of two children he was raised with his elder sister, Verna, and graduated from Carson Macedonia High School in 1964. That fall he matriculated to Tarkio College in Missouri where he would double major in Education and History with a minor in Physical Education. After receiving his Bachelor of Arts and Missouri Teacher Certification in 1968, Francis began teaching, serving as an assistant football and basketball coach, and working other various jobs to support his family.

In 1982, after separating from Linda, Francis moved to Springdale, Arkansas where he began working for Kawneer and eventually rose to the position of Night Supervisor. While employed with Kawneer he met Margaret Robinson in 1989 and the two were wed in 1990. From this union Francis gained a daughter, Kimberly, and a son Tracey, whom he thought of and treated as his own.

Throughout his life Francis was an avid Chicago Bears fan and had a tremendous love for dogs. His hobbies included collecting German Shepherd Figurines and collecting 18 wheeler truck models, and playing and watching golf. In the later part of his life his favorite pastime was simply enjoying the company of his wife and dog,
