“ Hello, my name is Nancy Hunter. Gary was my step-brother. My mother is Dorothy A. Fowler. Gene , Gary's father, was married to my mother for over 30 years. Gary spent a summer with us in Oregon where he worked as a "chocker setter" in logging.

Gina and Brenda lived with us for about a year in 1965. If you receive this letter and would like to respond, email is hunternancy7@gmail.com. With loving thoughts, Nancy “ Gary, my beloved "Big Brother". I never felt truly alone in the world as long as you were in it. You were the best brother a girl could ask for and I will miss you all the remaining days of my life.

I hope you are finally at peace.

With all the love in my heart and soul...your little sister,

Brenda

So sorry to read about Gary's passing. Although it has been over thirty years that I have seen him, I will always think of working with him with fond memories.
