“ I know this is a tough time. Kentrina and Chris you have a baby on the way. Cody is going to have to make an adjustment too. We pray that you will be comforted. We know that you are all strong and this will pass. We love you all and will pray for you in your coming days.

“ The first time I had met Gary was one day when he came to visit his mother. I was Velma's caregiver at the time. One by one I had met each family member and I came to know each of them. One day I had met Sharon, Gary's wife. Come to find out she had delivered my first child. Then came Katrina, then Cody. As Velma told me stories of each one and how much she loved them, I grew to know them even more. Gary was quite the joker, he loved his family very much and you could tell when he talked about each one of them how very proud of them that he was. Sharon, Katrina and Cody my thoughts and prayers are with each of you today and the days to come.
