“ Nanny and I miss you so much Poppy. You were the greatest man I am blessed to have a part of my life. There was never a dull or bad moment when we were all together, Nanny and you made me into the strong woman I am today and there is not a day that goes by we don't think or talk about the memories of us all. You are and will be very missed, but I know your in Heaven, watching down on us. I love you Poppy and miss you. Your Baby girl, Kayla

“ I always remember him as a happy man. He had very little patience though when it was time for him to go it was time for him to go. He always love kids. He was always so proud of his Kayla. He had a real love for his Rose & it showed. He is my brother-in-law, but my little sister he was always “uncle Gary“ And that suited him fine. He always treated me with respect & kindness. I will miss you Gary.
