“ One of the things I will miss the most about Uncle Gary is how he would always wrap me up in a big ole bear hug and ask “how’s my girl or how are ya doin hun.” It never mattered to him what had happened or how long it had been between visits, his undying love for his family was always constant. He and Jana helped me cope with the death of Momma and always reminded me that “there were holes in the floor of heaven” and she could always see me, Scott, Hannah & Peyton. I will always remember our trips to the NASCAR races in Texas with our campers in tow. His big laugh & smile, playing pranks on fellow campers (plastic snakes on a fishing line, my favorite!) or just sharing food and a drink by a campfire will be fun times I will draw comfort from for a long time. I know he had a BIG homecoming in heaven and I feel very fortunate that he is there, not only with Momma but the rest of the family, watching over and interceding for all of us left here on Earth. Remember that when someone that we love is in Heaven, there’s a little bit of Heaven in each of our homes! Love you all- Robbin
