“ Geneva (“Mamaw”) was one of the most loving, gracious ladies I’ve ever known. She and Allen were honest, kind people who loved the Lord, and that was evident in how they treated people and lived their lives. They had a way of making you feel loved and like they were genuinely happy to see you. They left a lasting, loving impression on my life. Their memory and legacy will not be forgotten. They are greatly missed, but I know now together and rejoicing as their faith has been made sight.
