

George Curtis

March 19, 2008

George Raymond Curtis (64) passed away on March 18, 2008 at his home in Fayetteville. He was born on September 18, 1943 in Oakland, California to George and Dorothy Curtis. George proudly served his country for over twenty years, as a member of the United States Army and later with the Arkansas Air National Guard's 188th Fighter Wing. While serving with the Guard, George became a Rural Letter Carrier with the US Postal service from which he retired in 2004. His greatest joy in life was helping others through hard times and giving to those less fortunate. George never met a stranger and displayed a profound amount of compassion to all who knew him.

He is survived by his loving wife of 26 years Arleen Tabor Curtis, one daughter; Katherine Michelle Younkin and her husband Matt of Lowell, and sister Diane Gresswell of Camas, Washington.

Funeral services will be held at 10:00 a.m. Monday, March 24, 2008 at Sisco Funeral Chapel of Springdale with Pastor Travis Wollenberg officiating. Burial will be at the National Cemetery in Fayetteville.

Visitation will be held Saturday, March 22 from 2:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Washington Regional Hospice.

“ Arleen:

Left a message on your phone, but know you've been busy. Will try to see you tomorrow, but if not will see you soon. Call me if I can do anything. Love and prayers. Dannie
