“ Georgia, my dearest friend. I am one of the Dirty Dozen. There are so many memories starting with high school, then work days, husbands, children, grandchildren, dogs, trips and just daily living stories. I will miss our phone calls, letters, texts and visits. My heart is broken but it is filled all my memories through out our lives.

“ Tami and Karen, my heart breaks for you with the loss of your sweet Mother. She was such a beautiful and gracious lady. The last contact I had with her was when I lost my companion andi still have a poem she wrote years ago about mine and Bill's dancing. Sending love and prayers

“ I was fortunate to work with Georgia when she volunteered with the Shiloh Museum of Ozark History for a few years. Georgia was a loving, kind, and sweet woman who positively sparkled! I always enjoyed visiting—and laughing!—with her. She told wonderful stories about the people and places of mid-century Springdale. Thanks to the generosity of her son Steve, the museum is home to Gene Thompson’s massive collection of photos and negatives, taken largely in Northwest Arkansas. Georgia spent many hours reviewing these images, as well as images produced by Gene’s photographer pals, providing valuable identifications and backstories to aid future researchers and historians. Georgia’s generosity warmth, and friendship will live forever in my heart. I’m so glad to have known her. Her family has my deepest sympathy for their loss.

“ So many fond memories of Georgia. She was always welcoming with a beautiful smile. A smile that truly brighten your day. A hug that gave such comfort and warmth. Her love for family and friends, was unconditional and from a place In her heart so beautiful. She made a difference with so many and when with her I was always a better person. Many smiles and laughter I will always remember. Prayers to the family

Steve, Tami and Karen my prayer for you is that God will be a comfort to you in your time of need.

I loved your parents since I was a young teenager. I used to baby sit for them with Steven...he was a great baby.

My folks also knew them well. I don't know of anyone who didn't like them both.

Georgia had the most beautiful smile for everyone. God has another special Angel now, be in peace.
