“ As a close friend and former Orchard Apartments neighbor, Ginger and I texted twice daily and visited her often. Whenever I entered her room, her face would light up with a big smile, an image I will forever treasure. May God bless you my beloved "Ginger Snap", Rusty Noyes

“ I still can't believe that MY GINGER is gone to heaven. She watched me from the time I was 6 weeks old to school age and was more than a babysitter she and her family were our family. The one thing that keeps me going is knowing that she's with mama Ruth and I know how much she missed here down on earth. It breaks my heart to know I'll never get those good morning or good night text or I love you ciara Nicole oh what I would do for one more call or hug. I know your flying high now but oh are you missed. I can't even explain how much I miss you already. Love Always and forever Your Ciara Nicole

“ It breaks my heart to know that Ginger has gone to be with our Father. I was just thinking about her the other day. She and Connie were the only 2 people in Westwood that my husband Garris got along with. He would go by their room and wave his hand and say 'doggie, doggie'. It was his way of getting them to come to the dining room for meals or entertainment. Ginger was the sweetest person and I will miss her.

“ To Ginger's family: We are sad to read of Ginger's death, but know she is in Heaven rejoicing with her family there. Ginger babysat for us for many years and we always knew they would have the very best care while she was with them.
She was a very kind person and we share in your loss.
