“ *Dear Gary and Kimber,
I was so sad to hear about Glenda's passing, and wanted to be sure and tell you both that she had an amazing impact on my life! I did not start taking piano until 1980; I was 15 years old and only took a few years from her, but I think of Glenda so much when I am enjoying the gift that she taught me. She was so beautiful, patient and talented. I always looked forward to being with her.

“ Gary, I don't know if you remember me, I worked for you and Glenda and Heinies. I am so sorry for you loss. Glenda was a wonderful upbeat woman. You were a perfect match. May the Lord keep you in your grief.

“ Gary, Though it may sound repetitious to tell you how inspiring Glenda was, let me just say that she embodied patience and grace. In teaching piano, she enabled ordinary people to derive something beautiful from an instrument. That's what the Lord wants from all of us, and I will forever be in her debt for that. When I heard of her passing, I simply sat down to the piano and played the melody that came to me when I remember her face, her smile, her laugh. She was truly a wonderful woman. My family sends our prayers to you.

“ I did not know Glenda personally, only through her father Glen. I knew Glen for many years as care consultant for Glenda's mother, and Glen spoke at every meeting of his daughter, how much she cared for her parents, and how much he loved her. How sad that she has had such a short life when she gave so much to others. I think of Glen often and his tragic death and know how this hurt Glenda. My thoughts and prayers are now with Glenda's family. How very much Glen loved her, and how sad that her life has been so short.

“ Gary, I was only around Glenda a few times but it didnt take long to figure out that she had a wonderful sweet spirit and a talent that God used in a mighty way. I will miss her every time I visit Samaritan House. I know her spirit will be present there for a long time in the hearts of many. You will be in our thoughts and prayers.
