“ Gone to soon, but the miles in your life created so so many smiles!! You were so selfless not only with your boys and grand babies but so so many more maybe a homeless person or one of the elderly people at grandma assisted living home! If more people would live their lives like you did and give to others the world would be a much better place for all! You had such a beautiful soul we will carry on as you would have wanted but life will never be the same! You gave me so much confidence any all my endeavors some you probably thought were crazy but you would have never let know and thank you! Anything i did you always believed in me and I'm gonna miss that so much! If i told you i was going to moon you would have probably said have fun,be careful take some pics i love you! One of a kind for sure and i love you!!

“ She was the most different person,Anyone would ever meet,everyone that had the pleasure to meet her and know her had one of the best blessing in life knowing a women that teaches you something,even though you never didn't know it at the time..she was a great mother loved her boys very much,loved her grandkids so much,her daughter in laws she loved us but she sure did give us a run for our money,we loved her the way she loved us,she taught me how to live and that her boys wasn't the easiest to live with,but work through it and stay together,there is no love like the lacy love
