

Glenda Lee McGarrah

May 22, 1956 - February 5, 2025

Glenda Lee McGarrah passed away peacefully on Wednesday, February 5, 2025, at Northwest Medical Center in Springdale. Born on May 22, 1956, in Ventura, California, she was the beloved daughter of James Edward McGarrah and Noella Florence Goulett McGarrah.

Glenda cherished life's simple pleasures. She loved staying connected with friends and family through her phone, savoring quiet moments over coffee, and caring for her cherished pets. For a period, she worked as a security guard at Ball Corporation, where her dedication and warm spirit were deeply appreciated.

She is preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Robert Allen Kessler; her sisters, Mary Franklin and Rose McGarrah; and her brother, Edward James McGarrah.

Glenda is survived by her children: David Kessler of Arkansas, Donald Kessler of Springdale, Eddie Kessler of Hindsville, Megan Kessler of Hindsville, and Marie Terrill of Hindsville. She is also survived by her brother, James McGarrah of Rogers, and her sisters, Junie Burns of Tennessee, Shirley Woods of Lowell, Doreen Shafer of Lowell, and Charlotte Moss of Lowell.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Online condolences may be left at www.siscofuneral.com.

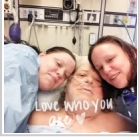

Glenda's gentle soul and the warmth she shared with those around her will be forever remembered and missed.
