

Glenda W. Roddey

October 22, 1940 - September 25, 2025

Glenda W. Roddey, 84 of Fayetteville, passed away Thursday, September 25, 2025, at her home. She was born on October 22, 1940, in Fayetteville, Arkansas, to Dr. Carrol Courtney Worthy and Ora Vay Pennington Worthy.

Glenda was a writer and a teacher who enjoyed the arts. She owned and operated a pre-school.

She is preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Phillip W. Roddey; one daughter, Leah Kristin Roddey; and one brother, Thomas Lee Worthy.

Survivors include her sons, Phillip Courtney, Andrew Collin, Tyler Clayton; one sister, Terry Worthy; three granddaughters, Alexandria, Leah, Sara; and a grandson, Elias.

No services are currently scheduled.

Online condolences may be left at www.siscofuneral.com

Tribute Wall

RH

“ SAD NEWS. GLENDA AND PHILLIP GAVE COMFORT TO ME WHEN I LOST MY WIFE SHARON NOV 6, 2006. RAISING OUR CHILDREN IN ELEMENTARY THRU JUNIOR AND SENIOR HIGH..WE INTERACTED WITH ALL . MAY GOD GIVE COMFORT TO THE EXTENDED FAMILIES.

RONDELL “ RON “ HARRISON - October 01, 2025 at 02:31 PM

MS

“ My family loved Glenda and Phil...we were blessed to have them as neighbors and friends for many years....I know she will be deeply missed ...She was such a beautiful, kind lady who always had a smile....

Prayers way up for Courtney, Collin, Clay and their children..

Lots of Love,

Meagan Steele

Meagan Steele - September 30, 2025 at 09:26 PM

SE

Glenda and Philip were our neighbors on Ranch drive several years ago. Our little guys grew up together. She was one gorgeous lady and dearly loved her family and parents The Worthys. She had a lovely voice and sang in her church choir and ACO performances. I send God's love and comfort to her family. Rest in Peace Glenda. You were fun friend to know!!

Shirley Whillock Esch - October 01, 2025 at 07:21 PM

GS

So sorry for your loss. We all remember how good the Roddy family and the Worthy family was. Glad that I knew them.

Glenda and Gene Stevens - October 04, 2025 at 03:25 PM