“ I am saddened by the news of Glenn's passing yet smile at all the fond memories I have of him. My favorite memory is from several years ago. A bunch of us were camping at "the 5 acres" and we decided to go on a ride with the 4-wheelers. Glenn was riding in front of me and suddenly pulled over and stopped on the edge of the trail. I stopped and asked him, "What's wrong?". Glenn said, "Wrong? Everything is right!". He had stopped on the trail where we could see a beautiful valley below. Glenn said, "I am smelling the roses. Look around. Soak it up.". He continued on about how sad it is that people don't take the time anymore to "stop and smell the roses". He was right. I will always remember that discussion with him and have passed his words on to my children. Now Grinn doesn't have to stop to smell the roses! He is in a place where he smells them all of the time! My thoughts and prayers go out to Shirley, Cheryl, Richard, Steven and the rest of the family.

“ I haven't seen Glenn for quite some time, but he was always someone that you could strike up a conversation with as though you had last seen him yesterday. I have a lot of memories of standing around the campfire with Glenn, he had a comment for just about everything. Next time that I'm at a campfire - I will share a Glenn story - there are lots of them. Glenn was a good guy.

My thoughts and sympathies are with all of the Cordes family.

“ Glenn had a one-in-a-million personality. Always laughing, always joking, bringing smiles with him wherever he went, sharing his love of life and vegetables. Always promised him we'd never worry about him unless he stopped being onery. We will very much miss seeing him at the cleaners every week.

“ Glenn was the most caring and lovable person I have ever met. I loved every minute that I got to spend with him at the Elks Lodge and when he would stop by the house to visit us. He will be missed more than he could ever have imagined. He was one of my most cherrished friends.
