“ My grandpa was a very special and amazing man. He touched everyone that he met. I have been flooded with so many great memories of my grandpa and I. I can not pick a favorite. I remember waking up in the morning as a little girl and grandpa playing I spy with me for hours, I remember all the times he took me to school and we would sing old time country songs, or when he was teaching me to fish and instead I would end up throwing my princess pole in the water. My grandpa was my hero, my role model and so much more.
