“ My sympathy and love to Jeans family. She was a sweet generous person. she was my sunday school teacher for quite awhile and we sat together for church at Lakeview. One day my daughter and i picked her up for a church meal and she gave us a hot pad she had made. Mine is on my kitchen table. My grandson son loved her and loved her peanut brittle. When he heard of her passing away he said shes in Heaven making peanut brittle for Jesus. She will b missed. Josie Venneberg Bentonville ark.

“ While in my teenage and early twenties I spent a lot of time hanging out with Clint while in High School and after. She took me in and every time people who she knew she introduced me as her fifth son. Made me two flannel shirts every year for Christmas in which I wore them out even wore them in the summer, just rolled up the sleeves. She always lived her life with the love of the Lord in her heart. Always gave good sound advice. She along with Joe had a big part in what I am today. Proud to have known her. Great woman of God.
