

Gordon Lee Dodge

August 21, 1937 - July 13, 2025

Gordon Lee Dodge, 87, passed away on July 13, 2025.

Gordon was born on August 21, 1937, in Dexter, Missouri, to Claude and Winifred (Noell) Dodge. The family moved to Pontiac, Michigan, when he was around four years old. After graduating from high school, he joined the Navy and served until 1960. He enrolled in college at Michigan State University, where he completed a BS in packaging engineering. While in college, he met his wife, Linda Lee Moses. They were married in Deckerville, Michigan, on September 10, 1960. He got his first job working at NASA in Los Angeles on the early stages of the Apollo Project. He eventually got a job in sales for the plastics/packaging division of Eastman Kodak and remained with the company until he retired.

Gordon loved golfing, Corvettes, good food, and driving.

He is preceded in death by his parents and his wife.

He is survived by his son, Scott (Karen), and daughter, Robin McDonald (Kevin); three grandsons, Matthew McDonald (Bryanna), David McDonald, and Nathan Dodge; and two great-grandsons, Carter and Maverick McDonald.

He is interred at the West Tennessee Veterans Cemetery with his wife.
