“ Jeanette was a high school classmate and a wonderful friend to me as I joined the Springdale High School in the late spring of 1949. Saw her a few times during our early married days and then she attended our 50th class reunion and we enjoyed lots of good memories. Georgia (McCoy) Thompson

“ A few years ago we were in NW AR to visit my mother (who was in Heritage Park at the time), and Henry and Jan invited us to dinner. Jan (a good cook, by the way) had made chili rellenos which I had never eaten, and a drink with some alcoholic content. It was a very pleasant time with my brother and his wife. I hold it dear in my memory. I know my son Drew was there...I don't remember if Paul was home at the time. The rellenos were delicious and the "fuzzy navels" were too. Good times!
