“ To all the family, Although we didn't get to come to your Mom's funeral, you were in our thoughts & prayers. We thought a lot of your mom & dad both. They were such friendly & thoughtful people. They accepted my mom & all the family were so good to her. May God bless you & be with you in your loss.

“ Allen, I may be dating us for using this term, but I always thought your Mom and Dad were "cool". They let you have a pet squirrel! I remember when you thought it was such a great idea to put my Volkswagen up on blocks while parked in your driveway. Your Mom laughed the loudest when I tried in vain to drive away! She had a strong faith but was never judgmental. We always had fun at your house! I remember that your Mom and Dad always faced life (and all our shenanigans) together and during this difficult time, we must remember that they are together once again and with the Lord.

“ Leslie,

It's hard, isn't it? I don't remember meeting your mom, but I'm sure she supplied lots of support while we were in band in high school playing flutes! My prayers are with you and your family.

“ So sorry for your loss. I have a lifetime of memories of mom's family (The Nicholas's) and Dad's family the (Faddis's) being good friends with the Seay family. I've heard numerous stories of the good time they all had as young people around Lincoln. I hope good happy memories like that will help you through this hard sad time. Please, know that I care and that all of you are in my prayers. Helen Faddis Chadwell
