“ Harold was such a good man and farmer. When I lived at Pleasure Heights I used to go down at Aunt Ora's and get fresh milk. That was back in the 80's. My mom (Eileen Bowen Grigg) would go with me sometimes and talk about the times when she was a kid and they would have to row across the river. I loved listening to them talk about the old days when they were growing up. Good memories! God Bless You All.

“ Harold was one of the best uncles on this earth. He was always laughing, joking, and telling funny stories. I didn't get to visit with him alot, but I was blessed to get to talk with him on Uncle Shug's 80th birthday. We had lunch at the catfish place in Springdale. He was telling stories of WWII when he spent a long period of time in the Pacific area. He laughed as he said he believed for a long time they had forgotten him and his buddy over there. He will be sorely missed on this earth. He was a great Dad, Husband, Uncle and friend to many. I am thinking of my cousins Jeanette and Sue. I will remember all of you in my prayers, especially Aunt Ruby. Know that you are loved. Paula
