Banks performing the ceremony at the Center St. Church of Christ in Fayetteville, AR.

He was a long-time member of the Church of Christ, beginning his Christian journey in 1952. He became an esteemed Bible teacher and Biblical scholar over more than a half century while he worked and worshipped with the Robinson Avenue Church of Christ in Springdale, AR, and served as an elder there for 28 years.

The first six years of his elementary school education were in one-room country schools in Madison County, AR. Haskell continued his education briefly in Omak, Washington, and when his family moved back to Arkansas, he spent his high school years at Huntsville High School, from which he graduated in 1950. He continued his higher education at Abilene Christian College in Texas, and the University of Arkansas where he received a BS, BA degree in Accounting in 1956.

Haskell's first job after graduating was with the Phillips Petroleum Co. in Bartlesville, OK as an accountant in natural gas and sales. In 1960, an offer from Don Tyson to come work for Tyson's Inc. brought him to Springdale, where he became Controller/Secretary for that company and where he remained for 18 years. He was instrumental in setting up their data processing department while there. Following that tenure, he worked for George's Inc., as Controller/Secretary and held that position for 18 years until he retired in 1996.

He spent his leisure hours, especially in retirement, in woodworking, religious reading, writing, and gardening. He also enjoyed fishing and traveling with his beloved wife.

He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Marlene Jackson of the home, two sons, Gary Edwards of Lowell, AR and Randy Jackson and wife Lisa, of Jenks, OK; six grandchildren, Ryan and Stuart Jackson of Fayetteville, Reese Jackson and wife Ellen, of Jyvaskyla, Finland, Mary Beth Jackson of Jenks, OK, Andrew Edwards of Gravette, AR and Phillip Edwards and wife, Kim, and two great-granddaughters, Violet Jane Edwards and Estelle Rose Edwards of Fargo, ND; a brother, Clayton Jackson, of Omak, WA, and five very loving nieces. And a host of friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, an infant daughter, Jana Kaye Jackson, brothers Jessie and Gerald Jackson, and a sister, Crystal Parker.

ME

“ I AM ALWAYS WITH YOU

*When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,
But be thankful we had so many good years.
I gave you my love, and you can only guess
How much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
but now it is time I traveled on alone.
So grieve for me for a while, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust
That it is only for a while that we must part,
so treasure the memories within your heart.
I wont be far away for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you cant see or touch me, I will be near and if you listen with your heart, you'll hear all my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

“ It was indeed my pleasure to get to know Haskell better these last several years when I moved from Oregon to Arkansas. He was my 3rd cousin on my dad's side of the family and he married my 1st cousin Marlene, so we were double cousins. Haskell was always friendly with a great sense of humor. I remember fondly the last trip he, Marlene and I had Memorial Day week-end 2013 when they came out to Japton to visit the gravesites & we went up to Ledbetter cemetery to decorate the graves there & enjoyed a picnic. He got his diagnosis a few days after that. Haskell shared many items from his garden, which were always welcomed. Farewell my friend & cousin. You will be missed but most certainly not forgotten.
