“ I met Hazel when she moved into the assisted living facility in Springdale when I was the Activity Director there. I knew we would be friends because we hit it off right away. She told me she was having a yard sale to get rid of all of her junk she called it. I bought her two large curio cabinets that sit in my living room now. I think of her every single day that I look at them. As her health was getting worse she told me one day to take the flower pots she had on her patio home with me. They were filled with Gerbera Daisies and yellow Chrysanthemums because she knew I would take care of them for her which I did. I named the daisies Hazel after they came back the first year and continue to call them that every year they come back. I love Hazel and I am so sorry for her passing. Loved her stories and her sense of humor. May Jenny, Tracy, David and the rest of her family find comfort in knowing she was/is loved.
