“ To all my precious Easley family. Aunt Helen has been my aunt from the day I met her in 1968. She treated me from the moment we met as family. She always let me know she loved me no matter what or where. It was always a happy time when I was around her. She kept up with our daughter, her children and grandkids better than most. Mary always knew Aunt Helen loved her. It is with great sadness that she has left us. I am assured she is in her heavenly home surrounded by all the family that went on before her. She will be forever missed but never forgotten. May God bring us all peace through the wonderful memories of this most gracious and loving person that was either your mom, friend, grandma or aunt. My thoughts and prayers are with everyone of you. I love you all, thanks for loving me and making me a part of your family, my Mike is the bonus of having you all as my family. You all are always in my thoughts and prayers.

*Love to my Easley family,
Pauline*
