“ Today we learned of Herschel's passing. Our family has so many fond memories of Herschel over the many years he was a part of our gatherings and family events. We loved him as part of the family and always looked forward to relaxing visits and conversations. Herschel always had something interesting to say! God bless you, Herschel. We'll remember your smile, your laugh, and all the visits and good times. Thank you for caring and sharing with all the youngsters in the family. They all loved getting to see you! Everyone thought so much of you and you brought joy into all our lives. We'll miss you. Bud and Paula Opela and family (Deloris' family)
