“ Dear Brian, Pam, Betty, and family,

We are so sorry for your heartache! I have heard such wonderful things about Hosea these past few days as you all have shared your grief and sorrow. I've only met Hosea and Betty a few times, but it was always so easy to see how much they loved each other, their family, and God. When my and Pam's dad passed away in 05, Betty and Hosea were the first folks to show up at my house with food and drinks and paper plates and such. There must've been 10 bags of stuff! It was so sweet and generous. I'll never forget it. Such sweet people!

Brian, you all were some lucky kids to have grown up in such a warm and loving household. I will pray for your peace and comfort, but I will also thank God that your Daddy is no longer hurting. I was told when my mom passed that God can heal a broken heart but that we must first give him all of the pieces....when I figure out how to do that, I will let you know!

God bless and keep each of you today as you say goodbye, and as you go on to live he good lives that your Daddy and Mama taught you to live.

Love and hugs-- Samantha, Tim, and Katelyn

“ My dear friend Angela,

I am so sorry for the pain that you and your family are having to endure right now! <y heart is breaking for you as I know how so very much you loved your daddy, and he loved you as well. My prayers for you and your family are that God wraps his arms of love and comfort around you and your precious family. I know that you know that your sweet daddy is just another reason for us to strive to make heaven our home as well.

* My life dissolves and weeps itself away for heaviness; raise me up and strengthen me according to [the promises of] Your word.
Psalm 119:28 ****

Angela I love you and will keep you in my prayers as you face these coming hours days months and years.

*Love,
