“ The memories are many as I think about growing up with Kimberly at Grandma Lawson's house with Uncle Howard and Aunt Glenda. He was always kind, but firm with the young souls running around his house. When my dad (billy John), accidentally left the keys in the car and it went racing down the Hollar behind the house, uncle Howard and Dad raced right along with it to rescue his great nieces or the car.. ;) from the countless family gatherings to eating all the berries from Grandma's tree and Uncle Howard finding us first-- which was better. You, Uncle Howard were a great man and will be missed.

“ I remember back when Mary John and Howard lived in Avondale. I was the youngest one in the group and they seemed pretty wild to me but everybody always had a good time and Howard was always really nice to me. Gonna miss you both. Sandy (Ragan) Thomas...

“ The first man I ever loved. You were the best. There was always room in your heart for one more person. You were the only boy, and all your nieces and nephews adored you. There was always something fun to do on the weekends growing up, usually in group fashion. Drive inn, camping and fishing on the rocky shoreline, on beaver lake, going out in the pontoon with 500 other boats to watch fireworks as they danced along the waves, always being there for your sisters, me, Kent, Tonya, Rick. I'm so happily you had Glenda. She was truly your soul mate. You were lucky. It's a rare thing you two shared. She is a very special person. We lost each other for awhile, but, I loved you with such a fierceness, it's hard to describe, and even as I sit here, alone for the first time in a couple days, my tears cannot.begin to touch the profound sense of loss I feel. We're still going on that bike run, in honor of your memory now that you can't be with us physically, but in my heart you'll always stay. We lost one of the greats, and my heart is broken. I love you daddy. Catch a big one up there. Till we meet again.."lightning"
