“ To all of Irene's immediate family, I want to express my condolences and deep sympathy. Irene was a great lady. Unfortunately I didn't get to spend a lot of time with her, but I have wonderful memories of the times we did visit. I will miss our phone conversations. This is a great loss.

“ God bless you Irene and may the family all be comforted by the promise of Jesus Christ.

What a difficult job God has to do when it's time to take someone so special home. I know she is home because she was a Godly woman, she impacted my life as she did many and was always respectful to me and I was just a lawn guy for her. Wish my illness could have let me continue to do lawn care for her to the end.
