

J. McGill

March 7, 1936 - April 2, 2008

J.L. "Mac" McGill, 72, of Fayetteville died April 2, 2008, at the Washington Regional Medical Center. He was born March 7, 1936, in Jumbo, Okla., to J.L. and Martha McGill.

He retired after 30 years as a self-employed cross-country truck driver. He was very proud of his Native American heritage. He was a member of Springdale Moose Lodge and was a Christian.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Joan McGill, and two sons, Patrick and Johnny McGill.

He is survived by his special companion, Sue Harrison of Fayetteville, and a godson, Jeff Reeves and family of Tecumseh, Okla.

A memorial service will be at 10 a.m. Saturday, April 5, at Sisco Chapel in Springdale, www.siscofuneral.com, with the Rev. Romero Lizscano and Kenneth Lee officiating.

Tribute Wall

“ J. McGill

January 21, 2023 at 02:29 PM

“ Sue my thoughts and prayers are with you. Mac will be missed by everyone. He was a very special person to me.

April 05, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Sue we were so sorry to hear about Macs' passing. Words can't even begin to express our sorrow, he will be greatly missed. He was a very special and a very very nice man. I am expressing Dick and Wanda Jetts condolences also.

Sandy Lawrence

April 05, 2008 at 12:00 AM