

James Ferguson Hayes

June 10, 1930 - September 19, 2024

James Ferguson Hayes entered heaven on September 19th, 2024. He was born on June 10, 1930, to Franklin Glenn Hayes and Allie Lee Floyd. He was the 5th of 13 children. He married Iva White on October 14, 1950. They had four children.

He is survived by two of their children, Connie Mitchell of Springdale and Charlene Weddle of Terre Haute, IN. 12 grandchildren: Keena Ford, Phillip Hayes, Cliff "Leon" (Katrina) Hayes, Tammi Delgado, Andy Luke (Jessica) Hayes. Andriana Weddle; Rickey Warren, Courtney Weddle; Christopher Warren, Gianna Peretti; Kyle Peretti and Brian Peretti. 11 great-grandchildren Briana Adkins, Delane (Tori) Ford, Cherokeea (Barrett) Zemina, Hana Ford, Christian Delgado, Mae Ford, Nathan Hayes, Clifford James "CJ" Hayes, Tingly Hayes, Cambrie Hayes and Finnias Too-Good. 5 great-great-grandchildren Willow and Osiris Zemmina; Kane, Paisley and Sage Ford.

After being widowed in 1992, he married Barbara Woods and instantly gained five children that he loved and helped to raise. He is survived by their children: Antonio (Martina) Nettles of Alton, MO; Isaac (Christina) DeSalvo of Rogersville, MO; Ezekiel (Alyssa) Dahlke of Derby, KS; Angel (Shawn) Halferty of Winona, MO; Delilah Davis of Farmington, MO; 15 grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

He is survived by a brother, John Robert "JR" Hayes. He is preceded in death by both parents; both wives, Iva Hayes and Barbara Hayes; his son Clifford Hayes and daughter Esther Wilson, as well as a granddaughter, Faith Nettles; and 12 of his siblings.

Jim was a proud American Patriot. He was a farmer and avid gardener who loved to share what "God has given me" with others. He loved his family and children. His wife, Iva, and he helped over 200 foster children in almost two decades. He loved rodeos and, in his younger years, loved training horses.

A graveside service will take place on Monday, September 23rd, at 2 PM at Joyce Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Circle of Life.
