“ So sorry for your loss, but I know Jim is smiling down on you from heaven now. Jim was a great friend to my husband Harlin. I know there is a special star shining bright in the sky tonight - winking/blinking at something that Harlin just told him. May God bless you, Barbara, and your family, and may He help you through your grieving process.

“ *Barbara,
I have so many fond childhood memories of spending time with your family. Countless dinners and many Christmas celebrations are among those. I know my mother valued your friendship a great deal and I always enjoyed visiting your home. I'm so sorry for your loss and eventhough I haven't been in touch lately, I'm greatly saddened to know that Jim has passed away. Your family fills a special place in my childhood and I will miss him.*

“ I am Mary Helen Zeigler-Herron's daughter and Bea Brown-Zeigler's granddaughter. I never met James that I remember, but I do know several of his siblings. I'm sure that he was a good and very hard working man being from that family. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Warm love coming from the Houston, TX area for Mr. Hendershot. This news comes with extreme sadness but also happiness that he finally gets the chance to meet the Lord.

I had the honor of knowing Mr. Hendershot and his family throughout my entire childhood growing up in Springdale. It was a pleasure seeing him each and every Sunday morning at St. Raphael's and he always made a special point to talk to this 10 yr old like a man and I've never forgotten that. One of my fondest memories and highlights to this day was thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Hendershot. The Razorback basketball team was having a special dinner at the Springdale Country Club. Since my family were not members, I had no way of meeting my idols. Knowing this, they gave me their ticket for a chance to see my idols and what a time it was. Getting to break bread, chat, and having your picture taken with "May Day" and "The Big O" just doesn't get any better to a kid in jr. high (I still have my signed "Triple Threat" poster) and that was just one mention of the kindness the Hendershots gave me.

May God continue to bless Mr. Hendershot and his family and thank you for creating such an impact on my life.
