“ Good men are very few and even farther between these days. Marvin was a very good man, a good father, and a good friend. He will be sorely missed by all who knew him. I feel very blessed that I got to know him in this life, and look forward to seeing him again in the next life. God has called his good and faithful servant home. May he rest in peace. I pray for God's comfort and compassion on Janie, Jimmy and Steven and their families.

“ I know Marvin through his job with the City of Bentonville. I remember him as a very kind and decent man, who always had time to speak to me when he came to my office. I never heard him speak an unkind word. I will miss his calm demeanor and ready smile. My thoughts and prayers are with you, Mrs. Saunders, and with your family, for God's peace and comfort during this time.

“ I knew Marvin through his job at the city of Bentonville. We had tlked several times on the phone but never met in person until a city meeting at the library. I would like to tell the family that my heart and prayers are with them.
I am lost for the words to express how much I and many others will miss him.

“ Our love goes out to all of you. You all are very special friends to us and it hurts to see your pain in your loss. We will always remember Marvin as we used to go to your house or to buy something at the store on Thompson and Huntsville. He always had a smile and ready to greet the next person.
May Our Lord Jesus wrap his arms around you and bring you comfort and strength through this time.
