“ JL was my hero when I was a child. He returned from the Korean Conflict and visited with my family (his aunt Lou). He gave me his Army Hat and an old duffel bag by which my mom made me an "Army Jacket." I remember hours of marching up and down the sidewalk in front of our house at Lincoln, CA. JL was a special man; my mom spoke of him so often and of his goodness. So sad to see him go, but now he's free from pain. We love you JL. Carolyn, Louella, my daughter Leslie and her young sons.
