“ Jan and her family lived on Johnson Street and we lived on Harris Street years ago. We were friends with her and her family. Yes, Jan was very shy growing up. When she talked to you she would not look at you but would respond to you. Rex, I wanted to tell you that I am sorry for your loss of you sister Jan. You and I were good friends the short time you lived in the white two story house on Johnson St. I have never forgotten you and I wish you the best in life and enjoy you little sister Ann. May God be with you in your time of sorrow. Sincerely, Mary Bewley Isaac
